Chapter 1 by Story Wars

He gently caressed my auburn curls and hummed a soothing melody into my ear, causing me to fall asleep in his warm and protective arms. I felt so right in his arms although it wasn't. His dimpled smile melted away the trauma of all the past events that flashed in my head one by one. Which usually commenced with my mother's ruthless murder and ending with the destruction of a place which I used to call home. But one unanswered question kept ringing in my head
